        - One SAT section score without the other – any reason why the ADC should not require both SAT section scores if there is one?

- SAT section scores without total – any reason the ADC should not require a Total score if there are section scores?
- SAT total score without section scores – any reason the ADC should not require both section scores if there is a Total score?
- Ask Tarrah as a follow up

VI.   New business
